MATTY'S MEN BEATEN 3 TO 1 IN FAREWELL

By GEORGE W. UNDERWOOD. Out in Cincinnati, where the bandits side who stole our Matty away, all the cars have two troiley poles, which necessarily call for two feed wires. Of course the cars sometimes have to carry awful loads—there are more beer gardens and saloons in Cincinneti than there are beaucries in Hoston—but no here are beancries in Hoston—but no me yet has been quite able to figure just why they use two trolley poles when one ld do the work quite as well. burg, said, "These yeah cars don't seem
